

My first newspaper, 6 days a week

My own newspaper, Monday to Saturday

The joy of reading a real newspaper

Give your children an advantage – let them read their own newspaper every day

Daily7 and Daily10 are English language children's newspapers that provide age-appropriate, informative and educational reading material to children aged 5-11, 6 days a week.

As well as daily news items, infographics provide further information relating to the main news topic of the day. Reader participation by students and schools is encouraged through the submission of reviews and other contributions.

The newspapers can be used as a tool to aid English literacy. Readers are exposed to cross curriculum vocabulary and different writing styles in a news-driven context.

The new Daily7 and Daily10 online system gives the readers the freedom to view their daily newspapers online and listen as a native English speaker narrates the text. They can learn while they listen to their favourite parts of their newspapers. This service is exclusively for our subscribers.
